BE IT RESOLVED, that the 177th Convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Alabama, fondly remembering the special honor and courtesy shown to this Diocese and its Bishops by the Most Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori and her husband Richard through their visit with us in January as part of our celebration and Ordination of the Rt. Rev. John McKee Sloan, Bishop Suffragan, and recalling her gracious and inviting manner, her kind reassuring words, and also her beautiful vestments, does hereby formally and corporately express our thanks and gratitude to Bishop Katharine for her visit, and offer our continued prayers for her and her work in the Church with the knowledge and trust that the Lord who has given us the will to do good things will also give us all the grace and power to perform them.
