INTERN'S REFLECTION PAPER

Following the completion of the internship, the nominee should write a two-page, double spaced reflection on their internship discussing their own discernment and the direction it has taken.

The paper should include responses to these questions:

Describe and discuss the scope of the internship.

What surprised you about this experience?

How did this experience inform your understanding of the church?

What made you uncomfortable and why?

How did this experience inform your own call to ministry?

If you sense a call to ordained ministry, please specify what order.

This paper should be submitted to Elizabeth Blake, (eblake@dioala.org) who will upload the paper to the nominee's file. Please save your files as follows: "John Doe Nominee 2023 Internship Reflection Paper."
